

ISEPP ANNUAL CONFERENCE

MENTAL HEALTH: CONSIDERING CONTEXT IN HUMAN SUFFERING

OCTOBER 6 - 8 2017

DENVER CO

CALL FOR PAPERS

The International Society for Ethical Psychology & Psychiatry, Inc. is accepting proposals for presentations at its annual conference. This year's focus will be on considering the context of emotional distress, often a normal response to an abnormal or painful circumstance, how we can all to work together to look beyond, and how to avoid overlooking that which might, in fact, be the key to healing and forward movement. We invite submission of papers on a variety of topics including –

- Hearing Voices
- Trauma
- Language
- Grief/Loss
- Adaptation vs. Pathology
- Foster Care
- Understanding and Using 'Symptoms'
- Meaning-Making
- Systemic Oppression
- Social Justice
- Discrimination/Prejudice

There will be a limited number of breakout sessions on Saturday and Sunday. All presentations will be 45 minutes to 1 hour in duration. Group and panel presentations are encouraged.

PROPOSAL FOR BREAKOUT SESSION*

(Information as it would appear in conference program)

1. Name of Presenter(s) and Credentials:
2. Title of Presentation:
3. Brief Summary of Presentation (200 words or less):
4. Learning Objectives:
5. Short Biography (200 words or less) of Presenter(s):
6. A/V or other items needed (e.g., projector/screen, flipchart/markers, etc.):
Note: LCD Projectors, Screens, and power cords will be provided. Presenters are expected to bring their own laptop as well as any necessary adaptors (e.g., for Apple products).

*Presenters are expected to register for and attend the conference.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION: MAY 12 2017
EMAIL INFORMATION TO docgilbert@hotmail.com